Dear Bill
So this is life! It was fun going with you in the past year and a half. So bad it couldn't last.
I was really proud to be the girlfriend of such a popular guy.
Let's try and remember the good times we had together such as the Fagios (The Four Fagios), the penny drive, the Christmas Formal and so on. Let's try and forget the fights even though they were fun to. I like to wish you all the luck in the world in your college ~~career~~
Good Bless you
P.S. Don't forget me and do say you promise

■ Pius has become the best due to Father Joseph de Maria's unending efforts. Father is the superintendent of Pius.

PRIESTS BUILD SCHOOL SPIRIT

■ "Benedictio Dei omnipotenti....." Father Lawrence McCall closes the day with his blessing. He acts as supervisor and directs the athletic department.

PIUS'S STRENGTH IS IN ITS PRINCIPAL

■ One of the persons responsible for the growth and fame of Pius XI High school over the past years is Sister M. Beatrix, principal of the school and friend and advisor for the students. Through her guidance, boys and girls have become men and women, and her work will leave a lasting impression.

The students of Pius XI High School are privileged with the very best administration any school could ever hope for. Under the direction of Father Joseph de Maria, Father McCall, and Sister Beatrix, Pius has become outstanding in its efforts to produce future Christian men and women. Sister Beatrix has sacrificed her years at Pius in guiding many students out of trouble and confusion. Father Joe, with his "big heart," has helped to build a school every student will always be proud of. Father McCall continues to develop athletes and "men" through his guidance and "easy manner." This administration is tops "in our book."

■ Sister Sebaldua and Mr. Gosling seem to find a lot of common interest in discussing chemistry. Are they guilty of concocting those new formulae?

■ Sister Pulcheria, language teacher, Consolata, Spanish teacher, Sister Anthony, algebra teacher, find the faculty lounge a good place to correct homework and to chit-chat.

■ English teachers Sister Pacis and Sister, Georgine, advisors to the annual and Journal Staffs, check copy and seem to find it humorous. Not a student in sight to rewrite it.

Not the best nor smartest student of the most impressive religion - SMC Pacis, SMC Georgine.

■ And there they go, around the turn! Mr. Grover, social studies teacher, is in the lead as he races Mr. Medicus, Latin teacher, to the gym to coach the freshmen after a faculty meeting.

■ Fiddlers Three, are from left to right Sisters Casimir, Eustelle, and Maria Therese of our outstanding music department.

■ Skipping eighth period are Sisters Jacqueline and de la Salle, Sodality and Student Council moderators. (Getting away from it all?) In spare moments Sister Jacqueline teaches bookkeeping and English 3 and Sister de la Salle, science.

*Dear Bill,
I liked having you in homeroom
sometimes!
Just Sister de la Salle*

■ Sisters, you don't drink the paint! Artist Sister Anne sees to it that Sister Justine, art and math teacher, keeps the art equipment clean.

■ One of those dreaded voices that calls students over the P. A. is Sister Ambrose, who is also a co-advisor of the Braille club with Sister Terence, English teacher.

■ Say, your foot belongs on the floor, and not on the chair! Discussing a new map are history teachers Mr. Whelan, Sister Regina, and Mr. Bertucci.

Part of Luck to a very nice Bonds

■ Mr. Gracyalny, Mr. Basile, and Mr. Peloquin, shop teachers, compare plans with a finished product. Result: a new pulpit.

■ Sister Englemunda, and Sister Adeline, librarians, double check a book card to avoid difficulties in circulation.

■ Sister Judine, dramatics teacher, tests her voice on a new tape recorder and distracts Sister Clotildis from a record album for her senior English classes.

Williams,

Tonie will count the votes and announce the winner! You may be a winner yet, who knows? Sister Clotildis May 26, 1953

■ Say, Sister, all those books aren't going to fit in that little space. Sister Bernadin and Sister Stephen Mary return English books to their proper place.

■ Browbeating, two innocent faculty members, Miss Kelly (English 3 and conservation) and Sister Vincentella (home ec) is Mr. Riegert, (guidance) in his usual role as school ogre.

■ Getting ready to leave after their religion classes are Fathers Schmidt and Brady.

■ "And there you are," says Sister Pancratia, social studies teacher, to Sister Adeleida, commercial teacher. They are the moderators of the Third Order and Poverell Club, respectively.

■ Miss Reiff, art and math teacher, entertains Miss Henke, girls' gym teacher and Mrs. Engelhard, social science teacher, between classes.

■ "Oh, this smiling gets me," says Sister Adelma, social science teacher, as she, with Sister Theodine and Sister Austin, fellow social science teachers, reviews the film strip for tomorrow's class.

■ Father Beitzinger has a welcome smile for Pius students as he opens the door of the Saint Aloysius rectory. He's a sophomore religion teacher.

■ Sister Nicoline and Sister Antonius, business teachers, run off a test on the fluid duplicator.

■ Sister, don't you know that is unsportsmanlike? Biologists Mr. Drexler, Sister Celia and Mr. Dressler "go fishing."

■ Sister Samuella and Sister Alta, geometry teachers, get together to talk over some new angles before geometry class.

■ These "nut crackers sweet" are the Sisters who take care of the rest of the Sisters: Sister Gontrudis, Sister Auxentia, and Sister Theodorette.

■ Father Jarosch heard that joke before, Father Wolf. Both are religion teachers while Father Storch teaches driving.

■ Don't make it too difficult! Preparing a religion test, Father Witkowski diligently batters away at his typewriter.

■ "One for you, two for me" Sister Emmanuela and Sister Petronelle choose movies for their English classes.

■ Caught in the act! Sister Timothea scolds Sister Therista (religion etc.) and Sister Sebastian (Latin teacher) for raiding the snack bar.

*God love you!
Sister M. Sebastian*

■ "And there he is!" Sure you are, Father Basteys. Father makes with a little George Gobel while Father Zwadzick telephones and Father Albers listens in.

■ The main power house behind our boys on the field and on the floor are our coaches Maurice McMahon and James Brennan.

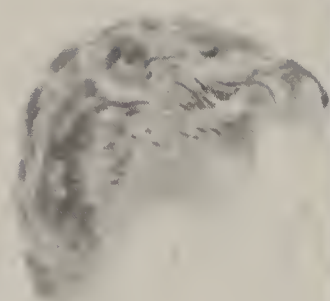

■ Father Brahm, Father Schmelzer, Father Johnson, and Father Schmitz, religion teachers, stop to have a chat before they leave school.

■ Experiments take so long, don't they, Don? Just think? If it blows up-no next period!

■ Barbara, do you really know the answer to that tricky question? Father Wolf challenges a Junior religion class.

A little popcorn would go swell right about now in conservation class, but intermission doesn't start for another 16 1/2 minutes.

■ Como esta usted. Put your tasks in the pocket. And keep your assignments on half sheets of paper. Muy bien gracias!

■ Pius' future answer to Paris. The girls of this sewing class are working on skirts for their wardrobe.

■ Giving their attention to Bill Perego, fellow members of the panel in this sociology class are Pat Borski, Betty Acker and John Hahn.

■ Latin is the dead language, but taught by Mr. Medicus this third year Latin class labors away.

■ The office will never be the same, The Sophomore religion class has invaded it.

■ Ah, merry art class in session with Sister Anne at the helm. They say that even the boys make purses in this class, for the girl friend, that is.

■ It won't bite, Jack. You seem a bit doubtful! Working on the experiment in Sister Sebalus' physics class are Pat Ruel, Jack Kusch, and Barbara Hegner.

■ Stand back! Mr. Gosling's chemistry class is at it again. The student scientists are Walter Kraemer, Bill Amrhein, Mary Aschenbrener, and Mary Windler.

■ These are Gay Caballeros? These Spanish looking Americans are awaiting their debut in "Carmelita," the 1954 operetta.

■ Could this be honor study hall? From all the pencil chewing and pen scratching going on, we think not!

■ These shop students are hard at work on what appears to be a knickknack shelf. Tools furnished at the window, boys.

■ A fellow martyr in a freshman Latin class is explaining the finer point of the "dead language" to his classmates. Dig that Dative Case!

■ Nancy, let's not look at the keys. This personal typing class ought to be past this stage.

■ The psychologist and the psychopath. Mr. Reigert is helping Roger Anderson to become a normal individual.

■ Let's keep those records straight. These members of the bookkeeping class are working slavishly to get the right totals.

■ Who eats oatmeal for breakfast? These seven Home Ec. girls are preparing more food than is necessary for one small breakfast.

■ Hey, none of that cheating in the front row. Geometry may be hard, but. . .not that bad. Gee, I never knew it could be such fun.

■ Aw, Barb, come on, let's have a smile- or did you just wake up? The rest of these smiling faces appear in Sister Clotildis' Senior English class.

■ Careful, every crooked line will cost you five points. Don't be too hard on him, Mr. Gracyalny. This mechanical drawing is a most exacting subject.

■ A candid glance at the string section of the Pius XI orchestra before operetta practice. Where are all the Georges?? Hey Tom! Got your fingers caught between the strings!

■ A time out for prayer in the beginning of each class is the custom here. Leading the advance algebra class in prayer is Father McCall.

■ Is she related to you, Mr. Drexler? This biology class is studying Emmy's respiratory system.

■ These are the kids who wanted to see what a million pennies look like: one of the general math classes pounding away at their adding machines.

■ This Sophomore English class is having a discussion on the short story under the direction of Sister Terence. These short stories must be getting interesting.

■ What's with this crazy scribbling? These Junior girls are trying their hand at first year shorthand.

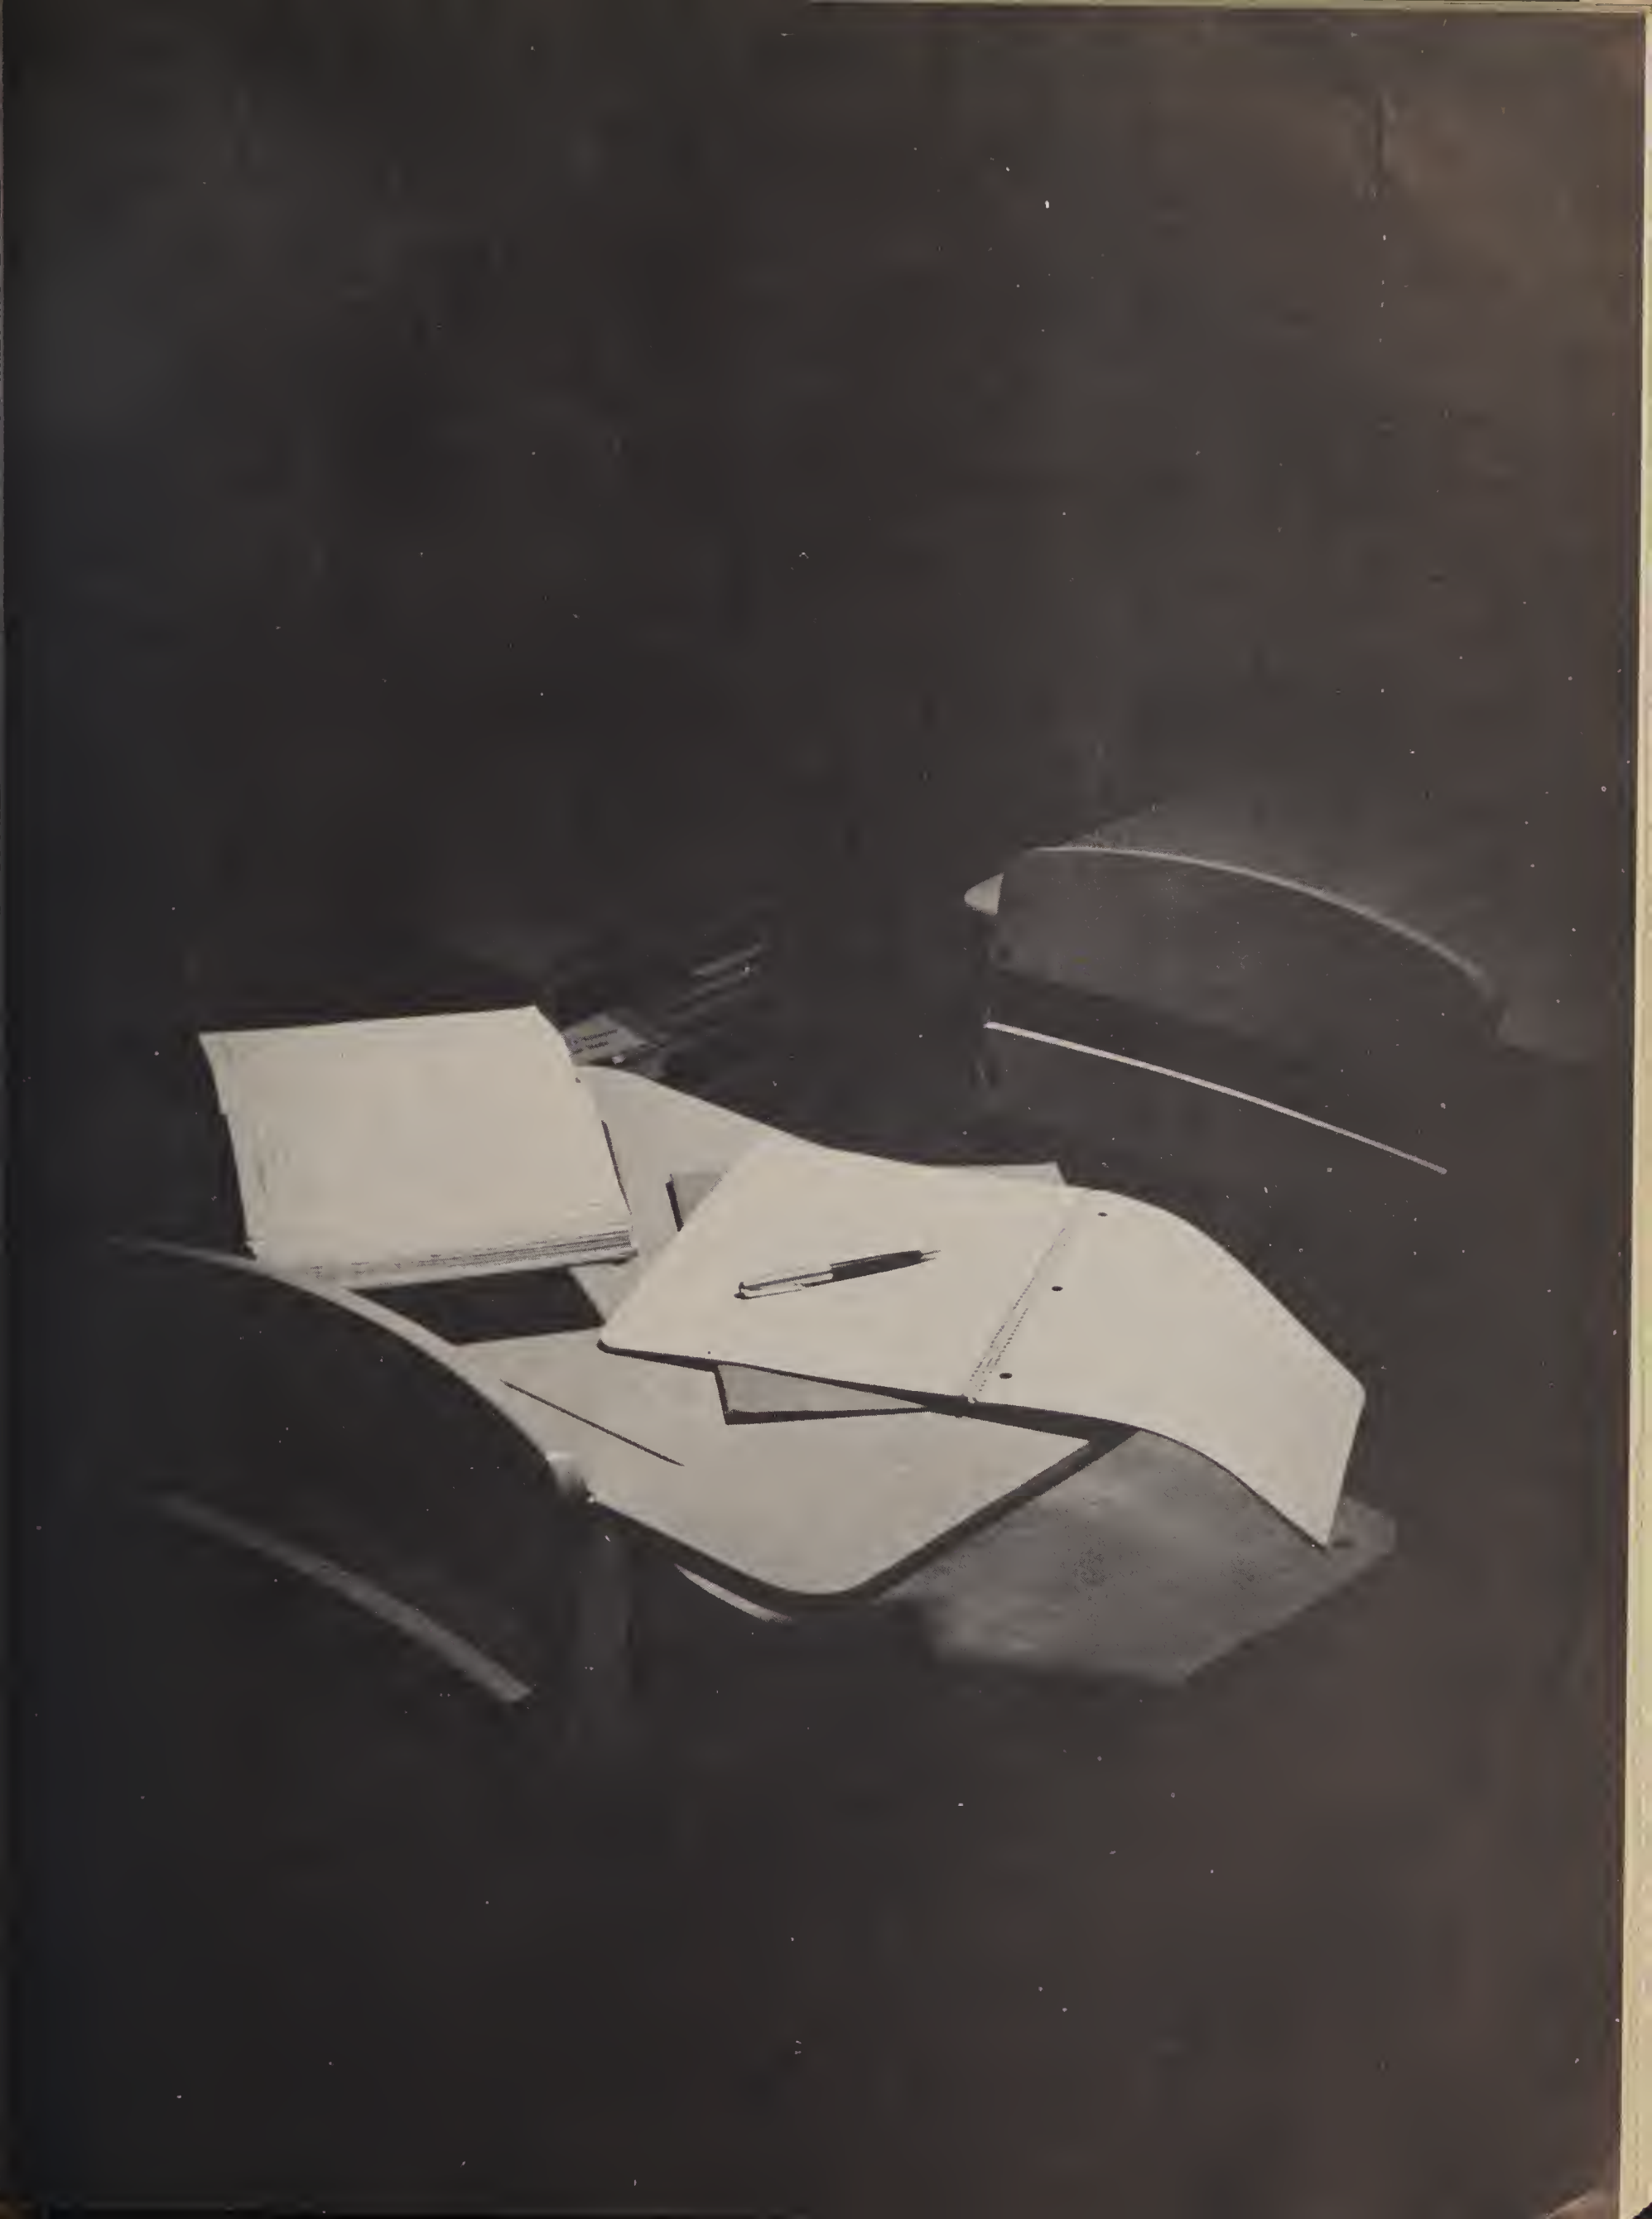

■ The Senior office practice class. Johnny and Connie are speeding away at the electric typewriters as Carol is duplicating and Frances is looking sick.

■ Poetry isn't always boring according to the expressions on these Seniors' faces. Who is Stone giving the eye to and you too, Bob Smith.

Dear Bunkie,
 See, I don't know what we would have done without your 7-up, candy bars, oranges, and peanut butter cookies. Don't forget to save me a place at your lunch table next year. As basketball captain you were terrific. What a riot in the apt.
 The parties, dances & picnic were real great. What would we do without our life of the party. As for Danny, I think his kind of meat (but then) I don't know. Sorry! Let's not be strangers all summer O.K.

Have fun with Harry this summer. You look great in a double bed. (Jeanie's B.J. party) Who was the creep next to you. N.C.A.C. Convention was a riot, too. Our little smoke house. (In the H.M.) If I ever need eye brow pencil I'll call on you. See you this summer, huh! Love in 'stuff'.

VARSITY DROPS ANCHOR

This football season of 1954 started like a race of swift sailboats. The Pius sloop, a swift craft, began strong, brushing past its first challenger, De La Salle, a craft manned by 11 strong Chicagoans. Next to fight it out was a smaller boat called Memorial of Waukesha. Though the size of the craft was small, they put up a good fight until Guenther Ruehle gathered in the air from their sails a pass, good for a touchdown. The sails were slack, but then a stiff wind blew up. St. Catherine's, a boat which had traveled long and hard last year to win the championship in a photo finish with Don Bosco, was beginning to move in on the Pius-manned sloop. The superior Popes crew pulled away. Then came Cathedral, Messmer, and Marquette all in a row. After the Marquette team had been completely outclassed, a blocked extra point plus Bob Holt's conversion put them beneath the briny deep. Don Bosco rose out of the fog and rolled with the waves and wind to smash Pius's mighty stern. The sloop, as it sank, began to slump with but five yards to go. The boat was still moving toward its goal, but Notre Dame took care of that and sent a Pius dream to see Davie Jones.

■ Father McCall, athletic director of the school, stops to talk with one of the students.

R. Anderson, J. Janus, P. Arena, B. Smith, J. Murach, G. Densing, B. Bykowski. ROW 3: Coach Brennan, K. Schaetz, J. LeGath, K. Segrin, J. Gross, D. Walder, G. Ruehle, T. Kasun, J. Galligan, B. Holt, N. Crowley, R. Ruzicka, Coach McMahon.

■ Hey, Hey, what do you say?! Don Wahn and Pete Arena pave the way for Jerry Weber on the longest quarterback sneak of the year. The highly rated De La Salle team of Chicago had a sad trip home after absorbing a 20 to 12 defeat at the hands of the Popes.

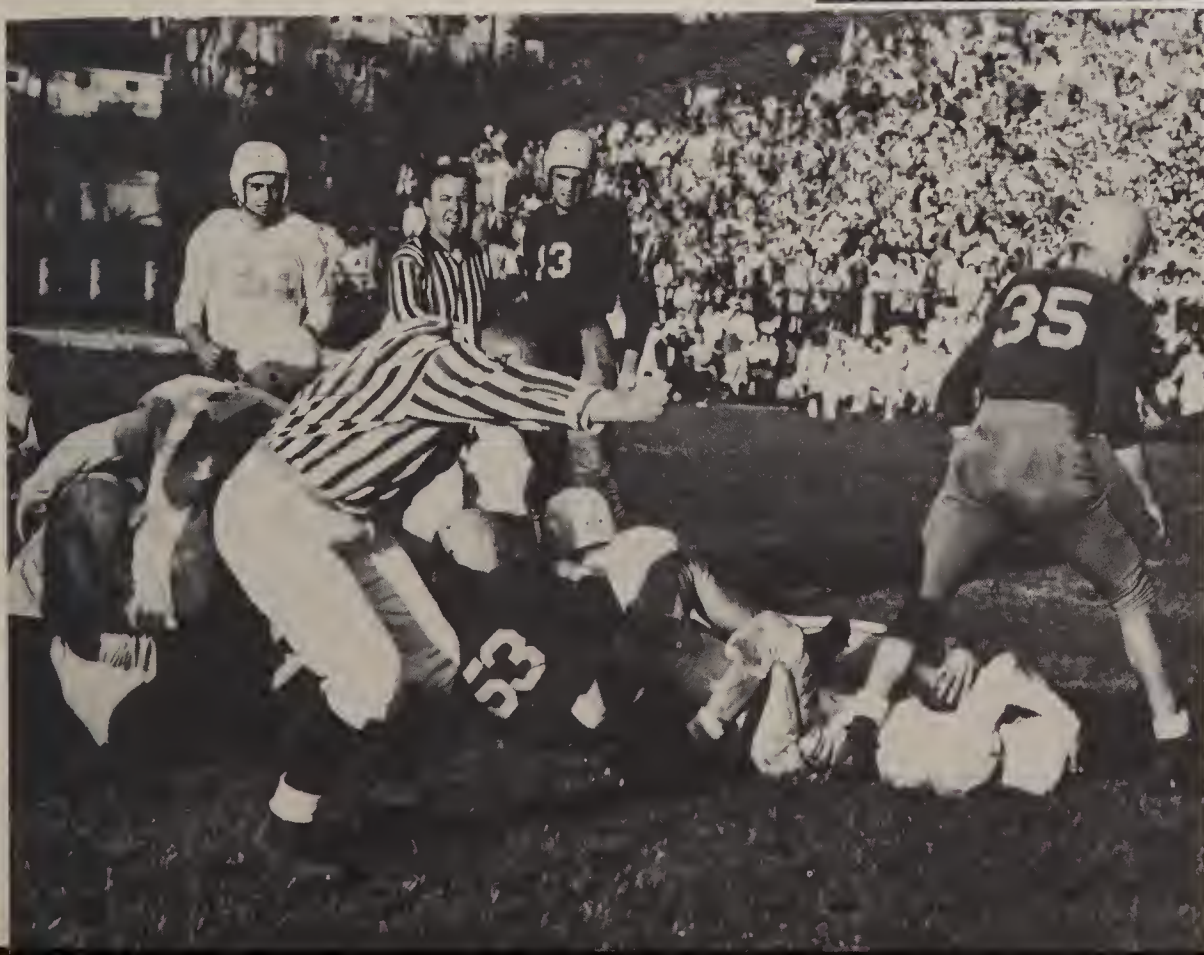

■ Somebody missed his man! Roger Anderson, after grinding out needed yardage, pleads for help from Bob Smith, who is willing but not able. Pius went on to cop its second straight victory over the previously unbeatable Junior Hilltoppers.

■ Gunner Ruehle, another reason for our big victory over Marquette, snares a pass from Jerry Weber and digs out more needed yardage. Bob Smith and Jack Galligan are busy blocking out opposing players?

■ Pat Frigerio, George (Root) Hackle, and Don Wahn converge on Ted Brzenk's attempted quarterback sneak. Guess what? Don bit his tongue.

■ Jerry Weber, Pius field general, gleams after the perfect call; Bob Berkopec goes into the end zone scoring that all important touchdown against Marquette. That's the motion we like to see, Ref. Red Dog Johnson, your profile isn't showing. That acute angle to the left (53) is Pete Arena anchored by Ralph Johnson's arm. Patty cake! Patty cake!

■ The frosh float entry in the Homecoming parade. "Humpty Dumpty" took third place in the judging.

■ First place in the Homecoming parade was captured by the Juniors' float on which three witches "boiled" Bosco.

■ John Kusch comes through with another "bomb" for the Homecoming parade.

■ Jubilant after another victory, Mac's boys proudly take a bow before the good nuns. (One bow for every point they scored) This bit of horseplay followed every Pius victory.

B TEAM STAYS ON TOP

Showing rare form this year, the JV's remained undefeated in five outings.

The only team to give the Junior Popes a real contest was Don Bosco, and that game ended in a tie. Their fine record would not have been possible if all the members of the team, both players and coaches, had not given their all throughout the entire campaign.

Never before have there been so many good varsity prospects on one frosh-soph squad. This splendid harvest should pay off in years to come as championship surplus.

CHEERLEADERS SCREAM TEAMS TO VICTORY

Come on team, fight! As this phrase echoes throughout the gym or along the grandstand, our teams are being cheered to victory by some limber kids with plenty of kick and megaphones in hand. The spirit of these cheerleaders is a form of loyalty to the school, and the spirit of the school grows with their leaps and bounds.

■ The Big Three! The senior cheerleaders, B. Strigenz, P. Schnackenberg, and N. Curran, pep it up.

■ Cheering the team on are J. Repplinger, J. Zschernitz, F. DiBella, P. Radocha and R. Vespalec.

■ Cheerleaders' Captain N. Curran, checks over the schedule for a coming game.

The Pius XI consolation champs from the De Pere Tournament had a little tougher sledding just before they hit the tournament trail. In conference play the Popes set the pace, going into the final stages of the season only to falter in the closing games before Marquette and Don Bosco. In doing this the Popes repeated the 53-54 record of 13 wins, 3 losses. In spite of Coach McMahon's golden clad cager's mediocre performance near the end, they managed to finish in second place in the conference and tied or surpassed 10 records. Some of the more noteworthy accomplishments were a new season total of 1356 points in 21 games and an average of 66.4 points in conference play. The Popes hit for a new game high of 88 points in whipping St. Mary's of Kenosha.

■ Hey, fellows who has the ball? Jim Monahan 10 watches Action at DePere as Tom Jashinsky 14, Jack Galligan grope for the ball.

■ Two more points for the home team! A deciding factor in the big Pius victory over Don Bosco was Jerry (Tiny) Campbell. Monahan and Weber are in the background of the picture, watching a basket that contributed to the final 58-53 score.

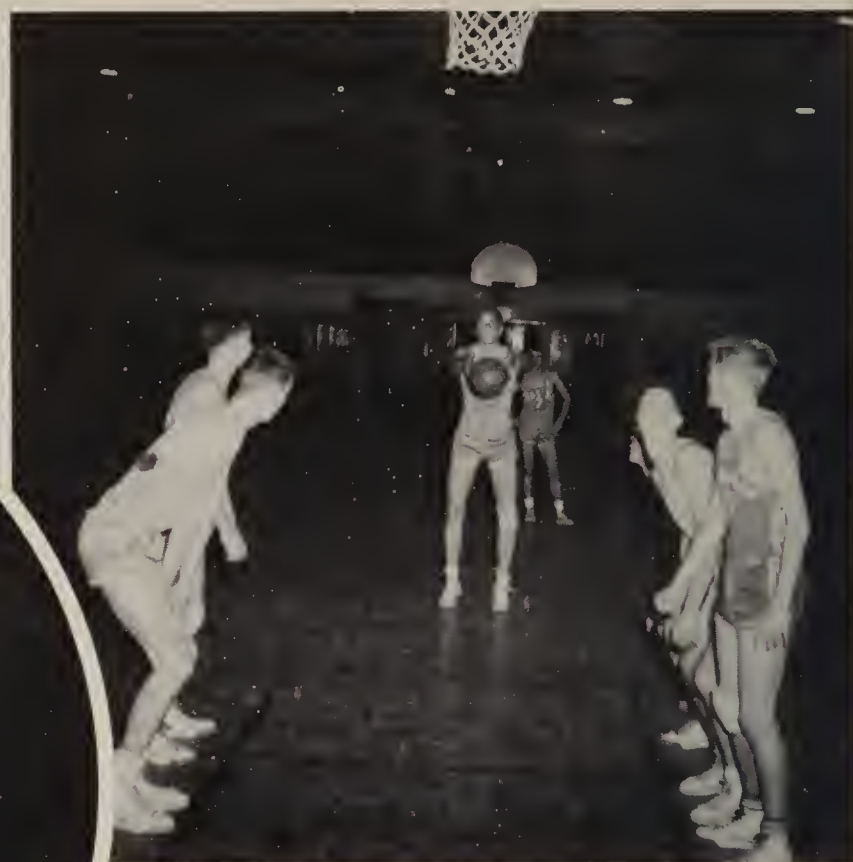

■ In that all-star classic in which our '55 varsity played the cream of previous Pope teams, Tom Jas-hinsky and Jerry Campbell battle for a basket. To the right, Jerry Weber checks the scoreboard. The alumni shellacked the Pius five, 65-57.

■ Jerry Weber, taking one of his specials against our neighbors, is one of the reasons why Juneau had to bow to the Pius varsity.

■ Jerry Campbell, on the line, takes a free throw. Leave it go, Jerry. Don't worry Tom Jashinsky, it'll go through.

■ Jim Monahan goes up high in the air to lay up a shot. Jerry Campbell and four Notre Dame players get set for the rebound.

■ Tom Kasun shows some of his best form as he goes up for a jump shot. Jack Galligan gets ready in case the shot misses.

■ Well, there is the ball; now which guy shot it? Forwards Jim Monahan, Tom Jashinsky and guard Jack Galligan fight for the rebound.

■ Jack (Jackson) Galligan brings the ball down court while two Bosco players keep a close eye on the ball.

■ Jerry Weber drives into the corner and up for another Pope tally in the Bosco game.

■ Campbell is open. Tom Jashinsky watch out behind you. Take note of that scoreboard!

■ You can see where 6'5" helps Jim Monahan against Marquette. Of course, he scored on this play.

■ Everybody feels it but nobody sees it except big Jim.

■ Come on, Jerry, grab it; you're closer than anyone else. Messmer doesn't have a chance.

■ Jim, give the rest of the fellas a chance. Messmer wants to play too.

■ As Jerry Campbell goes high to score for the Popes, J. Monahan and J. Galligan watch. Cathedral was defenseless against the taller Pius five.

■ Bob (Ram Rod) Holt puts in two points against Cathedral while J. Weber looks on.

■ Jerry Campbell '55, captained this year's team and also grabbed scoring honors.

■ Tom Jaskinsky '55 was starting forward this year. "Shinsky" proved his skill at crucial times.

■ John Steinbach '55 was one of the reserves.

■ Tom Kasun '55 was a valuable reserve guard.

■ Don Gardner's '55 height proved valuable.

■ Bob Holt's '55 striving for first string honors was an asset to the team.

B TEAM BRIGHTENS FUTURE

■ Charles O'Neill drives in to lay up a shot in the B Team game with Juneau. Tom Binder (10), Ken Segrin (17), and Dick Scholz (14), run up to watch the basket that helped the team win their first game here.

■ At Racine, where the B Team ran into an aggressive St. Catherine's team, Whelan takes a shot. Dick Scholz crouches and Charles O'Neill runs up from behind.

■ B Team basketball players are, from left to right, in ROW 1: W. Hahn, R. Ruzicka, R. Byrnes. ROW 2: T. Binder, T. Schweizer, J. Weber, J. Mitchell. ROW 3: R. Scholz, J. LeGath, H. Jacubinas, T. Hanley, R. Hahn, G. Gerow.

FROSH TIE FOR FIRST PLACE

■ Jerry Neitzel goes high in the air to execute his favorite jump shot. Jack Kraemer comes in, in case of a rebound, in a St. Catherine game.

Both the Freshman and B Team basketball squads made impressive records behind their capable coaches Mr. Grover and Mr. Brennan. The Frosh continued in the traditional way as they notched a three-way tie for the crown and extended the string of Freshmen championships to five straight. The B Team, seeking their first crown, faltered in the second half, but ended up with a still admirable record of 12 and 7, good for third place.

BOWLERS STRIKE AT BEN DAY'S

After school every Tuesday and Wednesday, the energy of some students is let out in that exercising sport called bowling. Ben Day's alleys become a swarm of uniforms and coke bottles accompanied by homework and gossip when the "Champs" arrive after school to compete among themselves.

■ Do you always genuflect before you bowl, Ken Gorske?

■ Ed Drapp, Joe Wilde, Gary Byer, Gordon Westpahl, and Jim Doolan stop to pose at Ben Day Bowling alley. Ed and John are Marquette students.

■ Norbert Tym should get a 300 game with that curve.

■ Marie Wondra, aims for a strike. Marie, did your team mates lose something?

■ Wow, look at that ball go! Ronny Kojis displays his talents at throwing the ball.

■ Hey, Joyce, somebody's going to step on your feet. With that position, Joyce Geiger must have had a strike.

■ Wayne Neal's smile is just enough to make that go right to the ten pin.

■ Members of a sophomore bowling team, Sid Dwyer, Robert Frankivick, Tom Prete, Patrick Shimunek, and a Marquette student, wait their turn.

TRACK TEAM TROTS

Track season at Pius this year started out on an encouraging note. The relay team took second place in the private school division of the JOURNAL track meet.

On the following Monday, the regular track season practice began, and Coach Brennan was gratified by the large turnout, mostly promising underclassmen. Strong distance runners, fleet sprinters and improved hurdlers, pole vaulters and shot-putters make up the team.

■ The start of another 8-lap "jag" is greeted with enthusiasm by these tracksters.

■ And he's over! Tom Jashinsky, jumps the low hurdles with ease as some aspirants look on.

■ Mike Becker hands the baton to Joe LaGath in a relay race. The rest of the team cheers them on. The fact that the temperature is 15 above might have something to do with their speed.

ACOLYTES ASSIST AT ALTAR

The Acolyte Club provides the greatest privilege for boys of Pius XI High School. At Mass, they represent the student body in their answering of the prayers and give direct assistance to the priest.

During the day they offer their time and effort in order to keep our chapel neat and attractive.

Being an acolyte is one way for these boys to serve God directly and be an aid to their school at the same time.

■ Acolyte president,
D. Breis.

■ Acolytes: T. Bruett, P. Ruel, and M. Ruel set up the chapel confessional.

■ M. Becker, J. Stoffels, and T. Hainer vest for Mass in the school chapel.

■ R. Laur gives directions for leading a monthly Infant of Prague procession to follow acolytes, D. Perry, R. Kastner, and J. Stefanik.

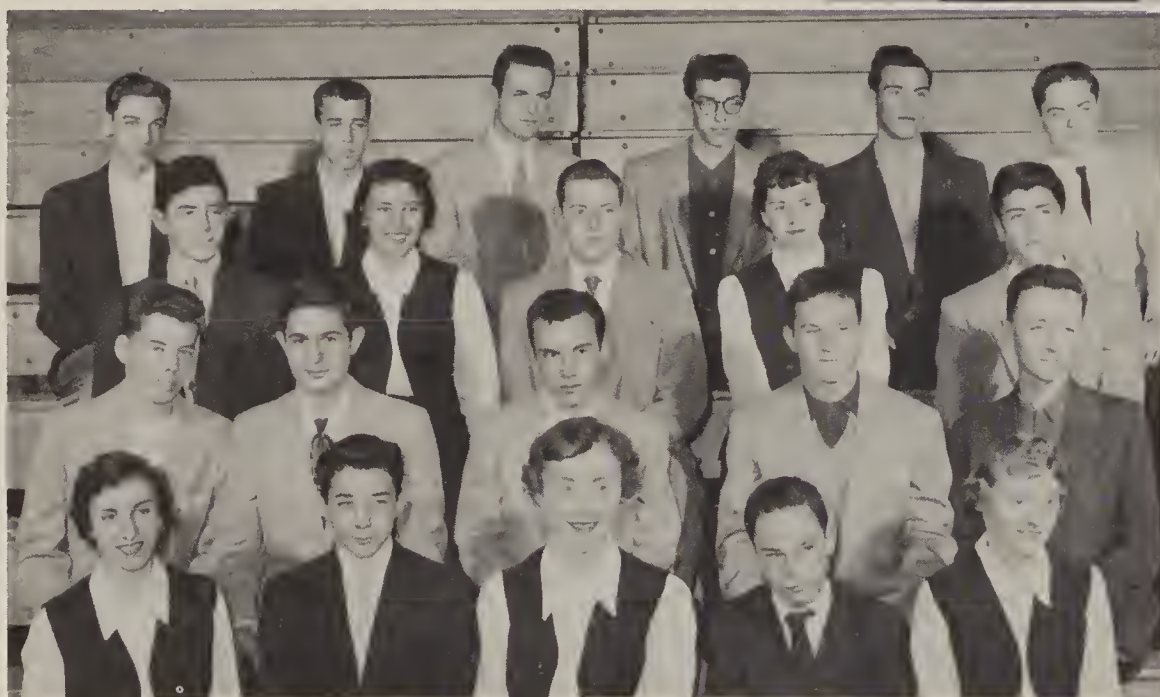

DEBATERS CHOP LOGIC

Membership on the debate team helps the student develop his speaking abilities and self confidence. The debaters get a chance to show off their talents at various inter-school meets as well as among themselves. Weeks of evenings are spent in preparation for their "verbal battles."

■ Umbrian Troubadour officers M. Monsen, J. Parske, K. Amend, E. Jennerjohn rest between acts.

DRAMA CLUB PRODUCES

The activities of the Umbrian Troubadours include giving original one act plays and learning all phases of stage craft. The members of this group learn the rights and wrongs of acting, and acquire stage presence. These qualities are great assets to any boy or girl. They may very well be future men and women of the theater.

■ Mirror, mirror on the wall, who's the fairest of them all? Actresses-to-be J. Jonovic, M. Greenwood, M. Monsen, and M. Hammond try for a future play. Marilyn is not very camera shy; are you, Marilyn?

SENIOR PLAY "JEANNIE"

The senior class presented, as their play this year, "Jeannie," a three act comedy. The play was given on March 25, 26, and 27. Joanne Jonovic, in the title role, portrayed a Scottish girl in the strange and exciting city of Vienna.

■ Maggie (E. Wilde) and Bessie (J. Parske) irritate Jeannie. (Dig those wilting bonnets!)

■ Members of the cast of "Jeannie" who brighten up the hotel scene pose in the lobby.

■ Just a "wee" drink. BELOW: Stanley (T. Chiapusio) and Jeannie argue who is going to pay while pageboy (G. Henzig) pours himself a drink.

■ R. Carey, reception clerk, is kept busy on the phone while "yon blonde" P. Daly waits. Who's the fuzzy friend?

AID THE NEEDY

The Mission Club is devoted to helping the foreign missions. They sponsor a drive for toys at Christmas and put on a party for the orphans. They have an all-out stamp collection once a year. A book drive is also sponsored by the club. On Valentine's day they have a large drive to raise money. The Mission Club gives the students a chance to practice some of the corporal works of mercy and perform acts of charity as well. It is made up of homeroom representatives.

■ "This is one load we hope will be overweight." Mission representatives J. Dobner and J. Lipscomb help M. Smith weigh the stamps he brought.

Pius can boast of its music department again this year. It includes the orchestra, band and the numerous choruses under the direction of Sister Casimir. These groups provided accompaniment to the Senior class play and produced an operetta and the annual spring musicale. The band added zest to football and basketball games. They spent hours practicing on early fall mornings to be a fine piece of morale to our teams.

■ Look ma, no hands! Toreadors of the third period chorus are shown in a colorful scene from "Carmelita." Besides singing, there were a few "acrobatics." (Where's the bull, fellows?)

■ The pep of the Pep Club---officers J. Ripple, M. Hosler, C. Schaefer, and M. Vespalec seem to have their own private little joke. Don't you think it's funny, Carol?

BOYS ROLL MOVIES

The Projection Club provides the services of its members whenever necessary. The purpose of this is to relieve teachers by running off movies in different classes when requested.

■ You ought to be in pictures! Projection Club members B. Diedrich, W. Neal (upper), K. Loeffler and R. Moritz "sacrifice" class time.

■ J. Sambs, head of the Projection Club, jots down club assignments.

COURT LEADS PROM

The Jr.-Sr. Prom is a big highlight at the end of each year. This dance always proves to be the biggest and best of the year and is remembered by the Seniors long after they graduate.

The Royalty this year included the senior class officers and their court. The officer-couples are K. Wildt, president, and V. Jacobi; A. Kremer, vice-president, and R. Glaser; P. Berkopec, secretary, and T. Dahlman; G. Ruehle, treasurer, and C. Sanville.

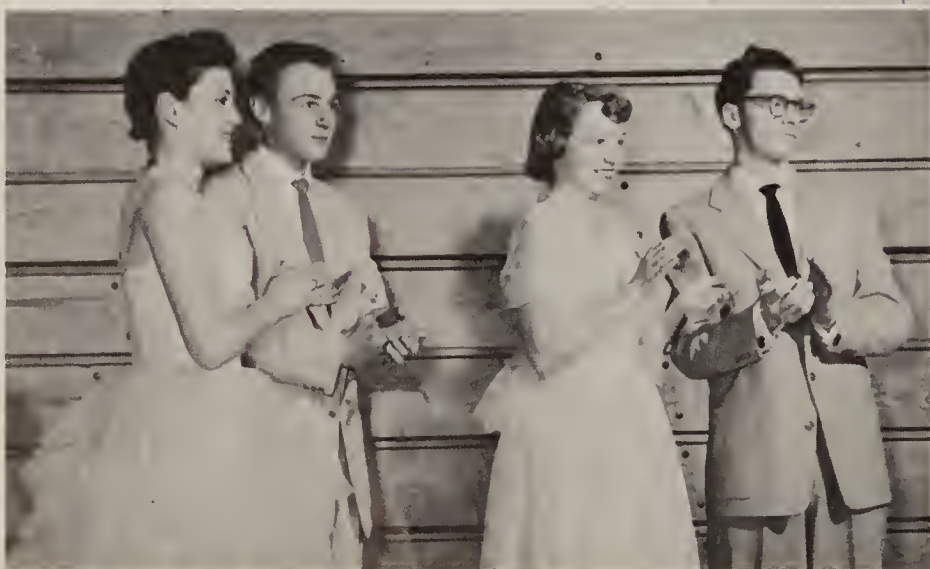

■ Royal Pair: Senior class president and King K. Wildt "trips" the light fantastic with Queen V. Jacobi.

■ Enjoying a joke are M. Hammond, R. Anderson, J. Holzhauer and J. Quick.

■ Aw, Come on, Ann! R. Glaser chats with his date, A. Kremer, class vice-president.

■ G. Ruehle, class treasurer, waits patiently while C. Sanville fixes her earring.

■ "We don't believe it." "It's hard to believe," are the expressions on the faces of F. Baumgartner, N. Ferko and D. Gardner as they listen to J. Surprise.

■ Hand in hand are P. Berkopec, Senior class secretary and T. Dahlgren.

The "hard-working" members of the Pius XI annual staff represent the school in recording the events of the past year. In their efforts to produce a yearbook worthy of their school, they sacrifice time and recreation for this common end. In doing so, they hope to achieve a lasting impression of the student's high school days. The 1955 Light is the result of their work.

■ J. Schmidt and M. Volm separate finished (?) layouts to be sent in for a yearbook deadline.

STAFF DOES IT AGAIN

■ There's a hot time in the annual room tonight - thanks to a borrowed heater being used by J. Holzhauer, co-editor, to warm her hands. Co-editor D. Kubiak seems to be too busy to worry about the cold.

■ Deep in thought are G. Menzel and R. Gialdini who are drawing layouts for the activity pages. This is one of their more serious moments. (No singing or smoking!!)

■ The "Thinker" of the annual staff, R. Laur (and he's in the pose for it) discusses annual sales with "casual man" R. Perry. Taking eye exercises, Rog?

■ Tasty Items: S. Reddick enjoys her tongue exercise while A. Kremer checks the number of casual pictures. (Something funny, Ann?)

■ Laugh and be merry, for tomorrow you shall die--if enough annuals aren't sold! D. Kubiak, R. Laur, and J. Holzhauer seem to think that they have reached their quota.

■ J. Keidel and V. Sheahan busy typing out home-room lists and enjoying (?) every minute. (These girls just aren't happy!)

■ A rare moment for the annual staff: R. Anderson and G. Ruehle looking over football shots for the sports section. Did we win that one?

JOURNAL STAFF EDITS EXTRAS

The Journal staff sacrifices time and nerves in order to produce a paper each month for the students. They report school news, and also drive the annual staff crazy!

■ A gem to the JOURNAL staff: Editor N. Rubner seems lost in thought over her article. (Or is it that she's frustrated?)

■ A fond (?) farewell to the staff room from associate editors C. Poetzel and J. Barany. (John isn't really that funny lookin' Cile.)

■ Cell Block Number 9! The inmates are typists A. Paulus, M. Jacobs (at table), V. Jacobi and E. Risch. (What a riot!)

■ Junior reporters J. LeGath and T. Bruett don't seem to bother M. Mollan with their clowning. What's the matter, boys, no work to do?

■ Is this the way that Jackie Ripple and John Steinbach discuss art for the JOURNAL?

■ Virginia Nelson, Winnie Hahn, and Jim Stoffels are reporters on the Staff. They never see, hear, or say a thing!

■ Neil Collins, Ann Dwyer, Valerie Reuschlein, and Ralph Hahn do the writing. Which one wrote about the search lights?

■ Mike Ruel and Peggy Vespalec are associate editors of the JOURNAL. (Does that mean type head on John Barany?)

■ Red Cross officers-junior chairman, K. Godsell; sophomore chairman, B. Holtyn; senior chairman, A. Paulus; freshman chairman, and B. Barwick pack boxes.

RED CROSS CARRIES ON

At Pius there exists a very important unit of the Red Cross chapter, which has as its purpose the welfare of those who are needy or unable to obtain help in any other way. The students who belong, give much of their time to fulfill this unselfish aim and enjoy their job of making others happy.

■ It must be modern art? A. Monson, N. Frangesch, and Y. Howard check over a picture for a Red Cross project.

PENNIES POUR INTO PIUS

In an effort to raise funds for a new industrial arts addition to their school, the students of Pius went all out in a drive to raise one million pennies. The girls and boys literally "pumped" pennies out of every person they came in contact with. Through this drive, the spirit and loyalty for their school was proved by all the students working together. Thanks to them there will be a "greater" Pius in the near future, built with the effort and pennies of its present students.

■ Are you cute, John! John Bar any monkey shines with Joan Keidel's sailor hat on "Penny Day."

■ Hey Mom! I won. Queen of the "Penny Pinchers Ball," Judy Reichenbach, telephones the good news home.

■ Throwing a million to the air are: P. Fetherston, A. Dwyer, P. Schnackenburg, J. Panlender.

■ "A pound of pennies for an hour's work." Sweeping up are J. Paulsen and A. Paulsen.

FRANCISCANS MEDITATE

The Poverello Club is the step before the Third Order. These two clubs help students become good Franciscans and better Catholics.

■ Third Order officers S. Hernke, P. Slattery, and J. Tretow try a bulletin board on their patron.

■ Poverello officers J. Chiello, M. Lesatz and G. Kust stroll down the Corridor to a meeting.

■ These freshmen and sophomores are the members of the Poverello Club.

■ These juniors and seniors are professed members of the Third Order.

YOUNG CLUBS SHOW INITIATIVE

■ Library cadets J. Blankenheim, M. Pieri, K. McFarlin, J. Zeitz, M. Fiske, and T. Herbert get set for work.

■ K. Sullivan hands K. O'Reilly her tools. Both are members of the newly formed braille Club.

This year the Braille Club was organized at Pius. Its purpose is to teach the fundamentals of braille in order that the members may give second sight to those who have lost their first.

For the good of those who use the library for study, library cadets have been stationed for help and order. They provide conveniences for the student and also for the teacher.

■ E. Stack, C. Cianciola, and D. DiLeo check in for library cadet duty.

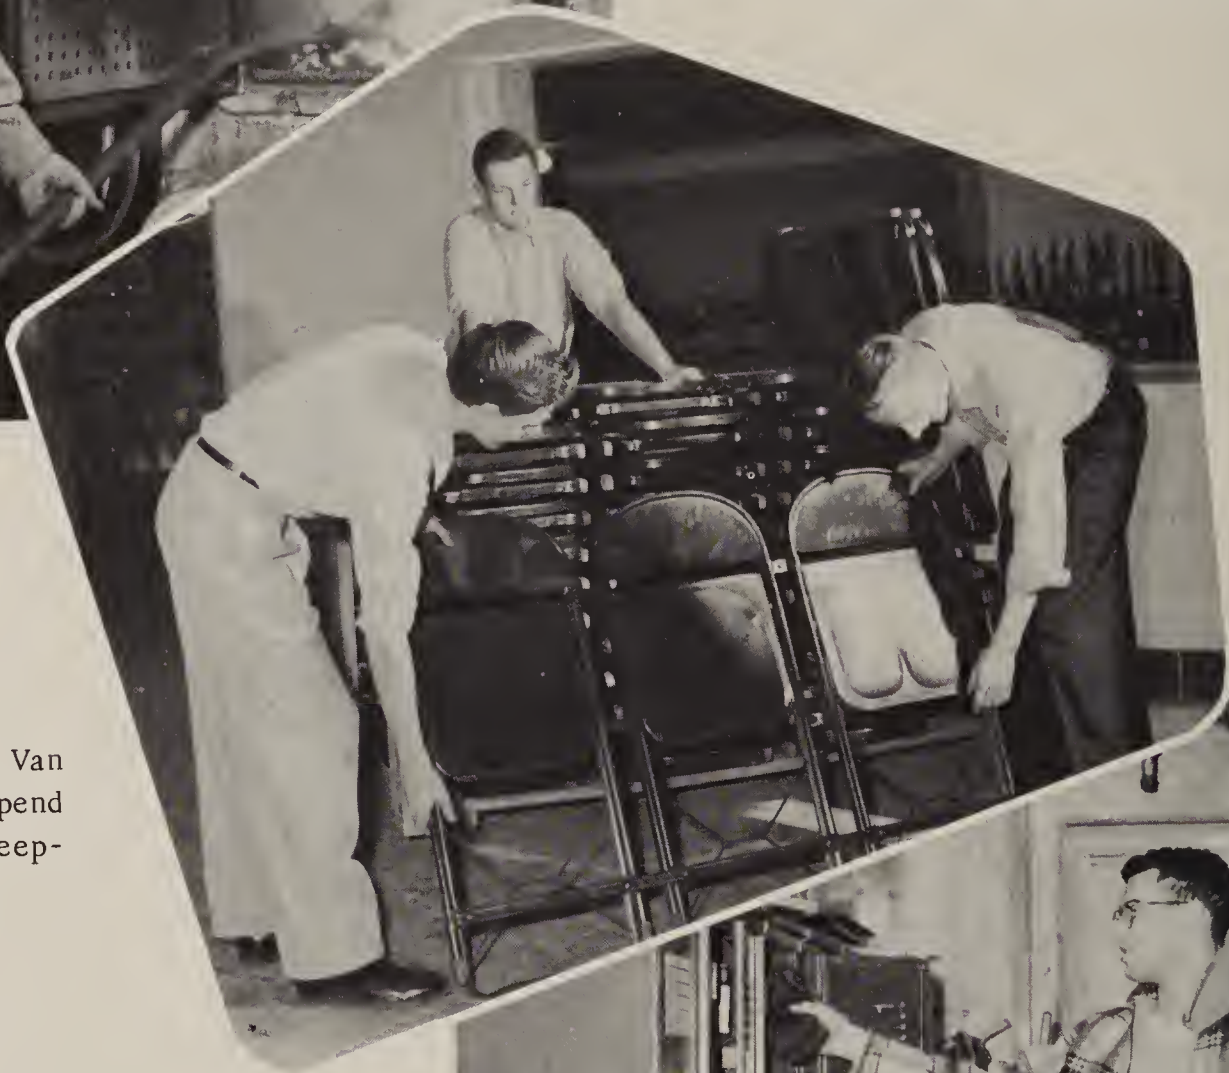

■ Braillists
M. Leonard, L.
Steffen, and M. Roth work at a cook book for the blind.

■ Mr. George Rechner, Pius' maintenance man, stokes the furnace as he tries to keep the school warm--part of his daily challenge.

MAINTENANCE MEN MAKE ORDER

■ Roger Wilde, Tom Van Doren, and Pat Slattery spend some of their spare time keeping the building in order.

■ Back in familiar surroundings is Dick Derksen '53 assistant maintenance man.

PARENTS BACK PIUS HIGH

Fathers of the students at Pius High show outstanding interest in the activities and growth of the school. At club meetings, school problems are discussed and fatherly interest helps to solve them.

The parents show a great deal of interest in Pius, and their membership in the Service Guild enables them to find out how they can assist the teacher in the growth of their children. A thank you is in order for their cooperation.

■ The president of the Service Guild, Mrs. Platz and vice-president, Mrs. Kayser, prepare for the monthly Service Guild meeting.

■ Mr. Peloquin, shop teacher, points out the tool supply to a group of fathers on their meeting night.

■ Preparing the tables for a Service Guild meeting are Mrs. Schneider, recording secretary, Mrs. Arena, secretary, and Mrs. LeGant, treasurer.

■ Members of the Fathers' Club, touring the metal shop, stop to look over a piece of machinery.

■ "It happens every day," Mr. Basile, shop teacher, explains to one of the Fathers at shop open house.
